MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Korea Army Family Readiness Group (FRG) Rally – October 2005

1. I want to take this opportunity to invite each of you to join Dianne and me as we kickoff the upcoming family readiness year by participating in Operation Ready in October 2005. Operation Ready consists of a series of Family Readiness Group (FRG) rallies throughout the Peninsula. These rallies offer each of us an opportunity to share with our community the value of FRG programs and the enormous contributions made by those who actively participate in our programs.
2. FRG programs have an irreplaceable, positive impact on operational readiness and play a vital role in maintaining our Fight Tonight posture. Active command involvement is essential to maintaining successful FRG programs throughout the Peninsula. All areas held successful FRG Rallies in March 2005. Their rallies were well-received and included information booths, food, briefings, activities for children, and other worthwhile events that strengthened FRGs in the Republic of Korea. I attribute much of the success to visible, proactive command and senior spouse involvement. Thank you!
3. As we prepare to kickoff the upcoming family readiness year, I encourage each of you to contact your local Army Community Service (ACS) office. Your ACS team can help with enhancing your programs and with preparing for the upcoming rallies.
4. Our outstanding family readiness programs are among the best in our Army. I look forward to seeing you at your local rally as we kickoff the beginning of what promises to be a spectacular year.
5. My point of contact is LTC Brenda Andrews, G1, 724-5231.
