

Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Stand Up Against Sexual Assault...Make a Difference

Silent Witness Display

Take a look at the display with life size wooden silhouettes that represents the victims of sexual assault that USAG-D area has had since the SAPR program started. Each silhouette will only have a number. The unveiling of the display will be done by COL Dumoulin, USAG-D Commander and LTC Perry, Eighth Army Sexual Assault Program Director on 3 April 07 during the Proclamation Ceremony.

Location of Display: grass area between the bus stop and the taxi stand at Camp Walker. The silhouettes will be illuminated at night, which will symbolize that we have not forgotten them.

Duration of Display: 3 – 30 April 07
