

Area II and Yongsan Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Area II SARC Cares About U Midnight Watch – UVAs will be posted at various gates throughout the installation handing out cards and candy as service members return to post. March 31st from 2230 - 0100

Area II SARC Cares About U Information Booth – This day will kick off the month. It will encourage all individuals to participate in the awareness and prevention of sexual assault. Pins, key chains, pamphlets, and other information will be offered. This event will also encourage individuals to participate in the “Pledge to Protect” campaign. April 1st at the PX from 1300 – 1500.

Powder Puff – Facilitated by CSM Foster. Designed for female service members. An honest, open discussion about the challenges women face in the military and how we can work together to keep everyone safe. April 9th 1500, Moyer Theatre.

“May I Kiss U?” Do You Ask? Workshop – This workshop is based on the book, “May I Kiss You?”. This is a challenging look at more than sexual assault. It will ask challenging questions, providing thought provoking scenarios. It will discuss body language and how unreliable it can be. Are you sending the right messages to your dates? The workshop will make some interesting points about how you should receive consent or you could be acting under the parameters of a sexual assault. The reality is...“Sexual assault can happen when two good people are dating each other and one person acts with disregard for the other person's feelings and rights.” April 11th 1800-2000, ACS 4106 rm 226.

Make a Difference 5K Run – Walk or Run - but do come out to support the end of sexual assault. YOU can MAKE A DIFFERENCE! April 14 at Collier at 0900. Food and Prizes.

Take Back the Night: Candle Light Vigil: This rally will unify individuals to stand up against sexual assault. An empowering educational process that will include UVA recognition, poem and story reading, candle lighting, musical performances, etc. April 18th at Moyer Rec Theatre 1800-1900.

Pledge to Protect Campaign – Will you pledge to do your best to protect you family, friends, and fellow service members in potentially dangerous situations where drugs, alcohol, a violent person, or other threats to their safety and well-being are present? Will you do this by having the focus and self-control necessary to remain aware of your surroundings, the wisdom to identify dangerous situations, and the courage to confront your friends when their judgment is impaired? Are you willing to MAKE A DIFFERENCE? 90% participation per unit is the target.
