

Soldiers play Ssireum, which is a Korean traditional form of wrestling.

Together We Stand

The KATUSA-U.S. Soldiers Friendship Week held in May 03, raised the morale of the soldiers. During this period, many KATUSAs and U.S. soldiers participated in sport events, the talent show and the entertainment show. The U.S. soldiers also had the chance to learn the Korean tradition, such as Kimchi making and wearing of Traditional Korean clothes.

(Above) U.S. Army Troop Command Korea team perform at a talent show at Balboni Theater in Yongsan Garrison.

Pfc. Yoon, Jong-pil

(Above) Soldiers play flag football in tough field conditions.

(Above) Eight soldiers were awarded the first Paik Sun-yup leadership award by Gen. (Ret) Paik and Lt. Gen. Charles Campbell, 8th U.S. Army Commander.

*Text and Photos by Cpl. Kang, Byung-Sam
Page made by Pfc. Yoon, Jong-Pil*

(Right) An Eighth Army soldier trys making Kimchi, a traditional Korean food, during Katusa/U.S. Soldiers' Friendship Week.