U.S. Army, ROK Ministry of Defense Strengthen Partnership in Pocheon

Rodriguez Live Fire Complex, South Korea—Eighth Army and Republic of Korea officials signed a memorandum of understanding, Sept. 22 at Rodriguez Live Fire Complex, to build a stronger bond between citizens and U.S. Forces who train in the area.

The MOU will be a guiding document to open lines of communication between U.S. Forces, the Ministry of Defense and area citizens. Lt. Gen. Thomas Vandal, Eighth Army Commanding General and Mr. Suh, Hyung Suk, Director General of National Defense Education Policy Bureau at ROK Ministry of Defense, signed the MOU to establish a framework for organizations to continue safe training and respond to area citizens' concerns related to RLFC activities."
