FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE RESOURCES

Camp Henry Legal Assistance
Building 1805, 763-4423

DO YOU NEED FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE? Below are three key financial resources for joint Servicemembers, retirees, DA Civilians, and their dependents. All of these resources are open during regular business hours, but are closed for federal and training holidays. Best of all, these services are FREE!

ARMY COMMUNITY SERVICE (ACS)

Camp Henry, Building #1103, DSN: 768-8127

Services: Financial Planning, Budgeting, and Emergency Loans

ACS offers a wide range of resources to assist with financial planning. They offer classes on everything from budgeting basics to the new Blended Retirement System. ACS also has one-on-one financial counseling available on a walk-in or appointment basis. Finally, if a Servicemember has a financial emergency, ACS can provide emergency loans. The emergency loans start at 0% interest (the specific terms are on a case-by-case basis).

THE CAMP HENRY LEGAL ASSISTANCE OFFICE

Camp Henry, Building #1805. DSN: 763-4423

Services: Attorney Counseling, Ministerial Services, and Claims Processing

The Camp Henry Legal Assistance Office (LAO) is available to assist with ministerial and non-ministerial legal needs. For financial disputes and concerns, attorneys are available to help with claims, credit and lending problems, landlord-tenant issues, debt collection disputes, limited contract assistance, and matters under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. The attorneys also assist with family-related financial concerns, like family support under AR 608-99. Finally, LAO attorneys work on military administrative matters for clients, such as rebuttals to Financial Liability Investigations for Property Loss (FLIPLs).

THE AREA IV TAX CENTER

Camp Henry, Building #1805, DSN: 763-4423

Services: Tax Preparation and E-Filing Services

The Area IV Tax Center will prepare tax returns and offer to file them electronically for free. This annual service prepared over 800 tax returns in 2018 and generated more than $1.6 million in refunds for its clients. The Area IV Tax Center is typically open from 1 February until June! Appointments and walk-ins are accepted.

Still not sure where to go? Call any of these offices and they will direct you to the best resource for you!
